NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME

GUIDELINES FOR AWARDS UNDER NATIONAL YOUNG LEADERS PROGRAMME (NYLP)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) is one of the largest Government organisations of student youth in the country. The strength of the student volunteers is around 36 lakhs which makes the NSS one of the largest student forces in the world. NSS covers all States and Union Territories.

The objective of the programme is to understand the community in which the student's work and understand themselves in relation to the community. Develop among themselves a sense of social and civic responsibility. Identify the needs and problems of the community and find the practical solutions of the same. The NSS Volunteer has to be a volunteer for two years during which he/she puts in 120 hrs of regular activity during a year and attends one special camp (Day/Night) of seven days duration.

The objective of the programme is to channelize the immense youth energy towards the Nation building. The same will be achieved by involving the youth in large scale Shramdaan (voluntary labour) all over the country. This will develop the personality and leadership qualities of the youth and promote the spirit of dignity of labour.

NATURE OF ACTIVITIES TO BE TAKEN UP UNDER THE PROGRAMME

Under the Shramdaan programme any activity that involve voluntary labour and is useful to the local area/adopted village/slum or community can be taken up. An illustrative list is as follows:-

- a) Digging, maintenance, disinfection, de-silting, de-weeding and repair of water bodies cleaning and de-weeding of Rivers, Lakes, Tals, Boulds, Tanks, Wells etc
- b) Removal of Parthenium (Gaajar Ghas), Lantana and Water Hyacinth (these plants are a threat to the environment and water bodies; Parthenium (Gaajar Ghas) is also a health hazard).
- c) Constructions of water tanks/ Ponds ground water recharging purpose.
- d) Plantation of saplings to stop soil erosion, development of village pasturelands, re-cooping of bunjar/unfertile lands
- e) Cleaning and repair of village drainage system disposal of garbage in order to generate environment friendly manure.
- f) Cleaning of village streets and open spaces, collection and disposal of polythene bags and plastic waste for disposal.
- g) Constructions/repair of village roads, small connecting bridges and small water harvesting bodies

- b) Cleaning, white-washing/painting, repair/maintenance of school buildings, gram panchayats, primary health centres, anganwadi's, Places of worship and other public buildings
- ii) Development and maintenance of play ground, cleaning of schools, college campus etc
- ji) Assisting in constructions of soak-pits, for the needy people maintenance of school/community toilets etc.
- k) Preservation/cleaning/maintenance of heritage sites.

Cleanliness activities under Swachh Bharat Mission will be special area of focus as far as activities under this programme are concerned.

IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGY

The Programme shall be implemented through National Service Scheme volunteers enrolled under this scheme. The scheme shall be implemented through NSS in all States and UTs through universities, colleges and +2 Schools covered under NSS

IMPLEMENTATION STRATEGY AND ACTIVITIES

The Programme will be implemented purely on voluntary basis which will be undertaken by universities and its affiliated colleges, medical/nursing/engineering institutes and +2 Schools in adopted villages, Adarsh-Gram, slums etc. Activities will be undertaken with local initiative by engaging local NSS volunteers so that the cost of the activity would be reduced but save time and money which a volunteer would need to spend on their travel, boarding and lodging.

Each NSS Unit having adopted village would undertake minimum of 100 hrs of Shramdaan in a year. It could be either 2-3 hrs on a non-working day (i.e. Saturday/Sunday) or during lean working days or holidays.

The duration of the Shramdaan may be more during a given day but should not be less than two hrs a day.

PARTICIPATION AND NUMBER

In each programme a minimum of fifty to hundred NSS volunteers would participate to work on pre-identified projects.

AWARDS

Since the scheme will operate on unit level the competition begins at the university level and its affiliated Colleges and +2 Schools. Therefore, the awards need to be given first at the university level and at the Directorate/ +2 council level. The awards would constitute with a certificate and a cash prize to those NSS Units who have successfully completed 100 hrs of Shramdaan.

Subject:- Guidelines for Awards for the year 2015-2016 Under National Young Leaders Programme (NYLP) reg.

Sir/Madam,

As you are aware that NSS has to undertake minimum of 100 hrs of Shramdan in a year in addition to 120 hrs which every NSS volunteer has to complete under regular activities. To encourage NSS volunteers who have rendered additional 100 hrs, in shramdan activities, Ministry has decided to give the awards to the NSS units. The guidelines are enclosed for your information with a request to circulate this guidelines to all the concerned universities/+2 councils so that the awards are finalised for the year 2015-2016 as per guidelines

Encl:- As above

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. G. K. Tuteja)
Director
